SERVICES OF SONG.

The attractive and instructive value of services of song is not as generally appreciated as it should be. The few pastors who make them as stated a part of their work as the sermon, with great unanimity report great profit and an increased interest and attendance on all church services. A few hints may be of value to those workers who have not heretofore used this effective method of work.

The great desideratum in all song services is that while the greatest possible variety of means is employed, a unity of impression should be produced.

To this unity of impression a leading thought is essential. On this leading thought all song, scripture, and remark should directly and progressively bear. The scope of that thought must not be too narrow, or material for its proper development will be lacking. A broad definite theme, with a decidedly practical outlook, will be most easy and profitable.

The means employed should be as varied as possible. Song by the congregation should of course constitute the body of the service, and comprise at least half of the music. This may be interspersed by anthems and quartets by the choir, solos, and duets, recitations, or readings of appropriate sacred poetry, scriptures read responsively, or by the leader alone, prayer extempore, or in concert, remarks making plain the development of the leading thought in the succession of songs, remarks on the scriptures read, the narration of pertinent anecdotes and incidents, or any other exercises that may suggest themselves to the ingenious worker. Of course, all of these ought not and can not be used in a single service, else were all the services alike and increasingly monotonous. Good judgment must be used not to wear out any striking exercise by too frequent use. Amid all this variety the leading thought must never be obscured. Remember the gauge of profit is the unity of impression. The spiritual phase of the service must be emphasized, or it will degenerate into a mere concert or show.

We give a few specimen outlines of song services which may be of use as suggestions.

No. 1.

1. SINGING—THE GLORIA PATRI.

Glory be to the Father, and . . . to the Son,
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ev-er shall be,

And to the Ho - ly Ghost:
World with - out end. A - men.

2. READ RESPONSIVELY.

Superintendent.—The Lord is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before him.

School.—The Lord is nigh unto all that call upon him: unto all that call upon him in truth.

Supt.—But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, the heaven of heavens can not contain him.

School.—And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold the tabernacle of God is with men, and he shall dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them.

Supt.—Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness.

School.—They that trust in the Lord shall be as Mount Zion, which can not be removed, but abideth forever.

Supt.—Blessed are they that dwell in thy house, they will be still praising thee.

School.—Our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jerusalem.

Supt.—Make a joyful noise unto God, all ye lands: sing forth the honor of his name: make his praise glorious.

School.—O sing unto the Lord a new song, for he hath done marvelous things.

Supt.—Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all the earth: make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise.

School.—Sing unto the Lord with the harp; with the harp, and the voice of a psalm.

3. SINGING—THE DOXOLOGY.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise him, all creatures here below:
Praise him above, ye heavenly host:
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

4. RESPONSIVE READING—THE BEATITUDES.

Supt.—Blessed are the poor in spirit:

School.—For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Supt.—Blessed are they that mourn:

School.—For they shall be comforted.

Supt.—Blessed are the meek:

School.—For they shall inherit the earth.

Supt.—Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness:

School.—For they shall be filled.

Supt.—Blessed are the merciful:

School.—For they shall obtain mercy.

Supt.—Blessed are the pure in heart:

School.—For they shall see God.

Supt.—Blessed are the peacemakers:

School.—For they shall be called the children of God.

Supt.—Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake:

School.—For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Supt.—Blessed are ye when men shall revile you and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

School.—Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

5. PRAYER.

The Superintendent or Pastor leading. Or, The Lord's Prayer, in concert.

6. SINGING.

OPENING SERVICE.

PREPARED BY REV. J. P. LANDIS, D. D.

No. 2.

1. RESPONSIVE READING.

Superintendent.—Know ye that the Lord, he is God: it is he that hath made us and not we ourselves: we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

School.—Oh, bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard: remember his marvelous works that he hath done.

2. SINGING—THE DOXOLOGY.

3. RESPONSIVE READING.

Supt.—And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness.

Teachers.—So God created man in his own image; in the image of God created he him.

School.—The Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

Supt.—And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her: and he did eat.

Teachers.—Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin: and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned.

School.—For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God.

Supt.—How shall man be just with God?

Teachers.—If he will contend with him, he can not answer him one of a thousand.

School.—Therefore, by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight.

Supt.—But the Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.

Teachers.—He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

School.—Bless ye the Lord.

Supt.—God so loved the world that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

Teachers.—And he is the propitiation for our sins.

Supt.—God commendeth his love towards us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

School.—Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, to him be glory and dominion, forever and ever.

Supt.—What must I do to be saved?

Scholars.—Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved.

4. SINGING.

Tune.—"Hamburg."

Just as I am, without one plea,
But that thy blood was shed for me,
And that thou bid'st me come to thee,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

5. RESPONSIVE READING.

All.—Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Supt.—Ye have received the spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

Scholars.—Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God!

Supt.—This is the will of God, even your sanctification.

All.—Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

Pastor.—Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints.

Supt.—The hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, and shall come forth.

Teachers.—Some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

Scholars.—O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

Pastor.—God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be bad.

School.—For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ.

Supt.—In my Father's house are many mansions.

Teachers.—I go to prepare a place for you.

Scholars.—I will come again, and receive you unto myself.

Supt. and Pastor.—Thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

All.—Praise ye the Lord. Let every thing that hath breath praise the Lord. Hallelujah!

6. PRAYER.

7. SINGING.

OPENING SERVICE.

PREPARED BY REV. D. BERGER, D. D.

No. 3.

1. RESPONSIVE READING.

Superintendent.—Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands.

School.—Serve the Lord with gladness: come before his presence with singing.

Supt.—Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise.

2. SINGING—THE GLORIA PATRI.

3. READ RESPONSIVELY.

Supt.—I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord.

School.—We shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house; even of thy holy temple.

Supt.—The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.

School.—He will not always chide; neither will he keep his anger forever.

Glory be to the Father, and . . . to the Son, And to the Ho - ly Ghost:
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ev - er shall be, World with - out end. A - men.

Supt.—He hath not dealt with us after our sins, nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

School.—For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

Supt.—Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him.

School.—For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust.

Supt.—The mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children.

School.—To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them.

Supt.—He shall feed his flock like a shepherd.

School.—He shall gather the lambs in his bosom, and carry them in his arms.

Supt.—Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

School.—I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live: I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.

4. SINGING.—CORONATION.

All hail the power of Jesus' name!
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown him Lord of all.

5. THE APOSTLES' CREED.

(Repeat in concert.)

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead: he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

6. THE LORD'S PRAYER.

(Repeat in concert.)

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

7. SINGING.

OPENING SERVICE.

PREPARED BY PRESIDENT D. D. DE LONG, OF LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE.

No. 4.

1. SINGING.

2. RESPONSIVE READING.

Pastor.—Hearken unto me, O ye children: Hear instruction and be wise, and refuse it not. That thou mightest answer the words of truth to them that send unto thee.

Superintendent.—How were the Holy Scriptures given to man?

Pupils.—All Scripture is given by INSPIRATION OF GOD. For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man, but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

Supt.—What doth God require of us concerning his commandments and statutes?

Pupils.—Ye shall diligently keep the commandments of the Lord your God and his testimonies and his statutes which he hath commanded thee. And thou shalt do that which is right and good in the sight of the Lord: that it may be well with thee.

Supt.—To whom are we commanded to teach the words of the Lord?

Pupils and Teachers.—Thou shalt diligently teach them unto thy children and talk of them when thou sittest in thine house and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down and when thou risest up.

Supt.—How early in life are we told, in the Holy Scriptures, that we ought to begin to serve the Lord?

Pupils.—Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them.

Supt.—What promise hath the Lord made to those who seek him early?

Pupils.—Those that seek me early shall find me. Riches and honor are with me; yea, durable riches and righteousness.

Supt.—What is said in the Holy Scriptures concerning God's people in this life?

Pupils.—Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance, yea, happy is that people whose God is the Lord.

Supt.—What is said about the wicked in this life?

Secretary.—But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it can not rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt. There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

Supt.—What hath God declared will be the condition of the righteous in the future life?

Pupils.—Say ye to the righteous that it shall be well with him: for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

Supt.—What shall be the condition of the wicked in the future?

Librarians.—Woe unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him: for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

Supt.—Doth God take pleasure in the destruction of the wicked?

Pupils.—Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live.

Supt.—What remedy hath God provided for us that we need not perish?

Pastor.—God so loved the world that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

3. SINGING.

Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in thee;
Let the water and the blood
From thy wounded side which flowed
Be of sin the double cure—
Save from wrath and make me pure.

4. RESPONSIVE READING.

Supt.—Did the people kindly receive Jesus—the Son of God?

Secretary.—He came unto his own, and his own received him not; but as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God.

Supt.—Where did Jesus tell his disciples he was going when he left this world?

Pupils.—I ascend unto my Father and your Father; to my God and your God.

Supt.—Did Jesus promise that he would come again to this world?

Pupils.—I go to prepare a place for you: And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself; that where I am there ye may be also.

Librarian.—But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night: in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

Secretary.—Seeing that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, looking for and hastening unto the coming of the day of God?

Pastor.—Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot and blameless.

Supt.—What I say unto you, I say unto all, watch.

All of the School.—So teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

5. PRAYER BY SUPERINTENDENT.

6. SINGING.

HAND IN HAND WITH JESUS.

E. J. CARR.

"All his saints are in thy hand."—Deut. 33: 3.

I. BALTZELL.

1. Hand in hand with Je-sus, Go-ing on my way; Looking up to Je-sus—Looking day by day.
 2. Hand in hand with Je-sus, Like a lit-tle child; Clinging un-to Je-sus In the tempest wild;
 3. Hand in hand with Je-sus, Joy within my heart—Joy which none but Je-sus Ev-er can im-part;
 4. Hand in hand with Je-sus, Nev-ermore a-fraid! Per-fect rest in Je-sus,—Peace which he has made.

Foll'wing aft-er Je-sus As my heavenly king; Of this blessed Je-sus I will ev-er sing.
 Lay-ing hold of Je-sus, Whether day or night; For I know that Je-sus Always leads a-right.
 Sing-ing un-to Je-sus Sweet redemption's song; For the ear of Je-sus. List-ens all day long.
 Yearning aft-er Je-sus, His dear face to see; For my heart, dear Je-sus, Finds it all in thee.

REFRAIN.

Hand in hand with Je-sus I will journey on, To my home in heav-en, Where my Lord has gone.

SING OF HIS LOVE.

PRISCILLA J. OWENS. "Because thy loving-kindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee."—Ps. 63: 3. E. S. LORENZ.

HEAR THE CHILDREN SING.

EDWARD A. BARNES. "The children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the son of David."—Matt. 21: 15.

REV. R. A. HIRT.

1. Hear the children sing of our Fa-ther's care, And his bless-ing sweet that we free-ly share;
 2. Hear the children sing what is good and right, What will yield us joy in the Sav-ior's sight;
 3. Hear the children sing of the up-per fold, And the cit-y bright with its streets of gold;

f
 Hear them speak in song of our Sav-ior's love, As a pre-cious gift from the Throne a-bove.
 Hear them speak in song of his words di-vine, And the bless-ed Light that shall ev-er shine.
 Hear them speak in song of the life to come, With our Sav-ior dear in his bless-ed home.

Fine.

D. S. As they oft-en meet in the Sun-day-school, How we love to hear lit-tle chil-dren sing.

CHORUS.
 Hark! hark! hear the chil-dren sing; Hark! hark! hear their voi-ces ring;

JESUS FIRST.

PRISCILLA J. OWENS.

"Who is over all, God blessed forever."—Rom. 9: 5.

E. S. LORENZ.

1. Above the songs of heav-en One raptur'd strain must burst, For souls re-deem'd, for-giv-en Must sing of Jesus first.
2. Be-side life's crystal riv-er, Lips that were long athirst, But now with gladness quiver, Are singing "Jesus first."
3. His hand once pierc'd is holding The scepter of all might, The u-niverse un-fold-ing His smile of love and light,
4. First-born of heav-en, we name thee, Who broke death's tyrant thrall; Our heart's first choice shall claim thee, Our God, high over all.

CHORUS.

The saints delight to make him know, The angels answer round the throne, Jesus first! Jesus first! Our blessed God we own.

6 THE CHILDREN'S SONG.

1 I hear the children's voices
In tender strains uprise,
Their carols sweetly blending
With hymns beyond the skies.

CHORUS.

The children sing of Jesus' love,
They speak his praise where'er they rove;

Jesus first! Jesus first!
They swell the song above.

2 Christ smiled on little children,
And drew them to his breast;
"Of such is Heaven's kingdom,"
Of love and joy and rest.

3 They trust, and fear no evil,
Confiding, gentle, kind;
In simple faith, as children,
We happiness may find.

4 They love the name of Jesus,
They trust his tender care,
And all they know of heaven,
Is—Christ himself is there.

JESUS REIGNS FOR EVERMORE.

J. B. CARLIN

"The Lord shall reign forever, even thy God, O Zion, unto all generations."—Psa. 146: 10.

I. BALTZELL.

1. Hear the proc-la - ma - tion Sounding far and near; Je - sus reigns vic-to-rious, Let the nations fear;
 2. See the wav-ing ban-ners, Floating o'er the land, Hear the songs of triumph From the roy-al band,
 3. Sound the proc-la - ma - tion; Shout it all a-broad, Je - sus reigns vic-to-rious, He is Is-rael's God,

CHORUS.

Bow before his scep - ter, Nev - ermore despair:—Je - sus reigns for ev - er - more.
 Shouting hal - le - lu - jah, March-ing hand in hand:—Je - sus reigns for ev - er - more. Je - sus Marching forth in triumph, O'er the roy - al road:—Je - sus reigns for ev - er - more.

Jesus reigns, he reigns, He reigns, he reigns for evermore. Je - sus reigns, He reigns, he reigns for evermore.

 reigns victorious, He reigns, Jesus reigns, He reigns victorious, he reigns,

MARTYN. 7s. D.

1 Jesus, lover of my soul,
Let me to thy bosom fly,
While the raging billows roll,
While the tempest still is high;
Hide me, oh, my Savior, hide,
Till the storm of life is past;
Safe into the haven guide;
Oh, receive my soul at last.

2 Other refuge have I none;
Hangs my helpless soul on thee;
Leave, oh, leave me not alone;
Still support and comfort me;
All my trust on thee is stayed;
All my help from thee I bring;
Cover my defenseless head
With the shadow of thy wing.

CORONATION. C. M.

1 All hail the power of Jesus' name!
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown him Lord of all.

2 Ye chosen seed of Israel's race,
Ye ransomed from the fall,
Hail him who saves you by his grace,
And crown him Lord of all.

3 Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall,
Go, spread your trophies at his feet,
And crown him Lord of all.

1 Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To him all majesty ascribe
And crown him Lord of all.

5 Oh, that with yonder sacred throng,
We at his feet may fall;
We'll join the everlasting song,
And crown him Lord of all.

10 TUNE, CORONATION. C. M.

1 Oh, for a thousand tongues to sing
My great Redeemer's praise;
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of his grace.

2 My gracious Master, and my God,
Assist me to proclaim,—
To spread, thro' all the earth abroad,
The honors of thy name.

3 Jesus!—the name that charms our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease;
'Tis music in the sinner's ears,
'Tis life, and health, and peace.

4 He breaks the power of cancell'd sin,
He sets the pris'ner free;
His blood can make the foulest clean,
His blood availed for me.

11 ARLINGTON. C. M.

1 Am I a soldier of the cross?
A follower of the Lamb?
And shall I fear to own his cause,
Or blush to speak his name?

2 Must I be carried to the skies
On flowery beds of ease,
While others fought to win the prize,
And sailed through bloody seas?

3 Sure I must fight, if I would reign:
Increase my courage, Lord;
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by thy word.

4 Thy saints, in all this glorious war,
Shall conquer, though they die;
They view the triumph from afar,
With faith's discerning eye.

12 MORE LOVE TO THEE. 6s, 4s.

1 More love to thee, O Christ,
More love to thee!
Hear thou the prayer I make
On bended knee;
This is my earnest plea,
More love, O Christ, to thee,
More love to thee!

2 Once earthly joy I craved,
Sought peace and rest;
Now thee alone I seek,
Give what is best;
This all my prayer shall be
More love, O Christ, to thee,
More love to thee!

3 Then shall my latest breath
Whisper thy praise;
This be the parting cry
My heart shall raise;
This still its prayer shall be—
More love, O Christ, to thee,
More love to thee!

E. A. BARNES.

"For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost."—Luke 19: 10.

E. S. LORENZ.

1. I was lost a-mid the gloom-y hedges, Heed-ing not the fold with o - pen door; I am
 2. I was lost a-mid the wilds of er - ror, Car - ing not how far I went a-stray; I am
 3. I was lost a-mid the an - gry bil - lows; Drift-ing on, I heard them surge and roll; I am saved, for Je - sus comes to res - cue, Giv - ing light where all was dark be - fore.

 saved, for Je - sus is my ran - som, Giv - ing life that pass - eth not a - way. I am saved, for in the Friend of sin - ners Faith re - veals the an - chor of my soul.

saved, hal - le - lu - jah! I am saved, hal - le - lu - jah! I am saved, hal - le - lu - jah! By the blood of the Lamb.

"O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the Lord our Maker."—Psa. 95: 6.

I. BALTZELL.

1. O Lord, let our songs find ac-cept-ance be-fore thee, And pierce thro' the skies to thine uppermost throne;
 2. Our Father, our Fa-ther, we ask thee to guide us, And keep us from sin till life's journey is o'er;
 3. Then, then will we sing the sweet songs of the blessed, And mingle our strains with the myriads a-bove;

For thou stoopest to list-en when children a-dore thee, And sendest thy blessings like messengers down.
 Then the last sigh of nat-ure, whate'er else be-tide us, Shall waft us to glo-ry, where time is no more.
 Far surpassing all strains that our tongues e'er express-ed, And Je-sus, the chorus, the In-fi-nite Love.

20 LOVING KINDNESS. L. M.

1 Awake, my soul, to joyful lays,
And sing the great Redeemer's praise;
He justly claims a song from me—
His loving kindness, oh, how free!

2 He saw me ruined in the fall,
Yet loved me notwithstanding all;
He saved me from my lost estate—
His loving kindness, oh, how great!

3 Though num'rous hosts of mighty foes—
Though earth and hell my way oppose;
He safely leads my soul along—
His loving kindness, oh, how strong!

4 Then let me mount and soar away
To the bright world of endless day!
And sing with rapture and surprise
His loving kindness in the skies.

21 SHINING SHORE. 8s, 7s.

1 My days are gliding swiftly by,
And I, a pilgrim stranger,
Would not detain them as they fly!
Those hours of toil and danger.

CHORUS.

For oh, we stand on Jordan's strand,
Our friends are passing over;
And just before the shining shore
We may almost discover.

2 We'll glrd our loins, my brethren
dear,
Our distant home discerning;
Our absent Lord has left us word,
Let every lamp be burning.

3 Should coming days be cold and damp,
We need not cease our singing;
That perfect rest naught can molest,
Where golden harps are ringing.

22 VARINA. C. M. D.

1 There is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign;
Eternal day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.
There everlasting spring abides,
And never-withering flowers;
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.

2 Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood
Stand dressed in living green;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between,
Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold
flood,
Should fright us from the shore.

23 TUNE, VARINA. C. M. D.

1 I heard the voice of Jesus say,—
"Come unto me and rest;
Lay down, thou weary one, lay down
Thy head upon my breast."
I came to Jesus, as I was,
Weary, and worn, and sad,
I found in him a resting-place,
And he has made me glad.

2 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"Behold! I freely give
The living water; thirsty one!
Stoop down, and drink, and live."

I came to Jesus, and I drank
Of that life-giving stream;
My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
And now I live in him.

3 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"I am this dark world's Light;
Look unto me; thy morn shall rise,
And all thy day be bright."
I looked to Jesus, and I found
In him, my Star, my Sun;
And, in that light of life, I'll walk
Till traveling days are done.

24 OH, COME, LET US SING.

1 Oh, come, let us sing,
Our youthful hearts now swelling,
To God above, a God of love,—
Oh, come, let us sing!
Our joyful spirits glad and free,
With high emotious rise to thee
In heavenly melody,—
Oh, come, let us sing!

2 The full notes prolong,
Our festal celebrating,
We hail the day with cheerful lay,
And full notes prolong,
Both cheerful youth and silvery age,
And childhood pure, the gay, the sage,
These thrilling scenes engage
Full notes to prolong.

3 Oh, swell, swell the song,
His praises oft repeating;
His Son he gave our souls to save,—
Oh, swell, swell the song.
The humble heart's devotion bring,
Whence gushing streams of love do spring,
And make the welkin ring
With sweet swelling song.

1 Blow ye the trumpet, blow
The gladly solemn sound;
Let all the nations know,
To earth's remotest bound,
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

2 Jesus, our great High Priest,
Has full atonement made;
Ye weary spirits, rest;
Ye mourning souls, be glad;
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

3 Exalt the Lamb of God,
The sin-atoning Lamb;
Redemption by his blood
Through all the world proclaim;
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

35 TUNE, LENOX. H. M.

1 Arise, my soul, arise;
Shake off thy guilty fears,
The bleeding sacrifice
In my behalf appears;
Before the throne my Surety stands,
: My name is written on his hands: ||

2 He ever lives above,
For me to intercede,
His all-redeeming love,
His precious blood, to plead;
His blood atoned for all our race,
And sprinkles now the throne of grace.

3 Five bleeding wounds he bears,
Received on Calvary;
They pour effectual prayers,

They strongly plead for me;
Forgive him, oh, forgive, they cry,
Nor let that ransomed sinner die.

4 My God is reconciled;
His pardoning voice I hear;
He owns me for his child;
I can no longer fear;
With confidence I now draw nigh,
And Father, Abba, Father, cry.

36 HEBRON. L. M.

1 So let our lips and lives express
The holy gospel, we profess;
So let our works and virtues shine,
To prove the doctrine all divine.

2 Thus shall we best proclaim abroad
The honors of our Savior God;
When his salvation reigns within,
And grace subdues the power of sin.

3 Religion bears our spirits up,
While we expect that blessed hope,
The bright appearance of the Lord;
And faith stands leaning on his word.

37 I AM TRUSTING. 7s.

1 I am coming to the cross;
I am poor, and weak, and blind;
I am counting all but dross,
I shall full salvation find.

CHORUS.

I am trusting, Lord, in thee,
Best Lamb of Calvary;

Humbly at thy cross I bow,
Save me, Jesus, save me now.

2 Long my heart has sighed for thee,
Long has evil reigned within;
Jesus sweetly speaks to me,—
"I will cleanse you from all sin."

3 Here I give my all to thee,
Friends, and time, and earthly store,
Soul and body, thine to be,— Wholly thine for evermore.

4 In thy promises I trust,
Now I feel the blood applied,
I am prostrate in the dust,
I with Christ am crucified.

38 GUIDE ME. 8s, 7s, 4s.

1 Guide me, O thou great Jehovah,
Pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but thou art mighty;
Hold me with thy powerful hand;
Bread of heaven,
Feed me till I want no more.

2 Open thou the crystal fountain
Whence the healing waters flow;
Let the fiery, cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through;
Strong Deliverer,
Be thou still my strength and shield.

3 When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid the swelling stream divide;
Death of death, and hell's destruction,
Land me safe on Canaan's side;
Songs of praises
I will ever give to thee.

44 AMERICA. 6s, 4s.

1 My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrim's pride,
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring.

2 My native country, thee,
Land of the noble, free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills,
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

3 Our fathers' God! to thee,
Author of liberty,
To thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King!

45 TUNE, AMERICA. 6s, 4s.

1 Come, thou almighty King!
Help us thy name to sing,
Help us to praise;

Father all glorious,
O'er all victorious,
Come and reign over us,
Ancient of days.

2 Come, thou incarnate Word,
Gird on thy mighty sword;
Our prayer attend;
Come, and thy people bless,
And give thy word success;
Spirit of holiness!
On us descend.

3 Come, holy Comforter,
Thy sacred witness bear
In this glad hour;
Thou who almighty art,
Now rule in every heart,
And ne'er from us depart,
Spirit of power.

46 REST. L. M.

1 Asleep in Jesus! blessed sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep;
A calm and undisturbed repose,
Unbroken by the dread of foes.

2 Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest,
Whose waking is supremely blest;
No fear, no woes, shall dim the hour,
Which manifests the Savior's power.

3 Asleep in Jesus! oh, for me
May such a blissful refuge be;
Securely shall my ashes lie,
And wait the summons from on high.

4 Asleep in Jesus! far from thee
Thy kindred and their graves may be;
But thine is still a blessed sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep.

47 WHAT A FRIEND. 8s, 7s.

1 What a Friend we have in Jesus.
All our sins and grief to bear!
What a privilege to carry
Every thing to God in prayer!
Oh what peace we often forfeit,
Oh what needless pain we bear—
All because we do not carry
Every thing to God in prayer.

2 Have we trials and temptations?
Is there trouble anywhere?
We should never be discouraged,
Take it to the Lord in prayer;
Can we find a friend so faithful,
Who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows our every weakness;
Take it to the Lord in prayer.

THE CITY OF REFUGE.

PRISCILLA J. OWENS.

"To be a city of refuge."—Josh. 21 : 13.

I. BALTZELL.

1. The Cit - y of Ref-uge a-waits thee, my soul, There's shelter and safety, though loud thunders roll ;
 2. Make haste to that Cit-y of Ref-uge to fly, Be - hold the a - ven-ger of blood drawing nigh ;
 3. Oh, let not that ref-uge a - wait thee in vain, But strive, careless sin-ner, the stronghold to gain ;

The en - e-my's ar-row, the shafts of de-spair, The wrath of the foeman can reach thee not there.
 His footsteps of an-ger are red on the waste : Lest death be thy por-tion, oh, speed on in haste.
 The heart of thy Sav-ior, once wounded for thee, With love draws thee onward, while fear bids thee flee.

D. S. The cross is my stronghold, and shel-tered with - in, I'm safe from all dan - ger, and free from all sin.

CHORUS.

Make haste to that ref-uge, my soul, and a - bide ; My sins still pur-sue me, but there I may hide ;

51 BETHANY. 6s, 4s.

1 Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee!
E'en tho' it be a cross
That raiseth me,
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee.

2 Though like the wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone;
Yet in my dreams I'd be
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee.

3 There let my way appear
Steps unto heaven;
All that thou sendest me
In mercy given;
Angels to beckon me
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee!

52 HE LEADETH ME. L. M.

1 He leadeth me! oh, blessed thought!
Oh, words with heavenly comfort fraught!
Whate'er I do, where'er I be,
Still 'tis God's hand that leadeth me.

REFRAIN.

He leadeth me, he leadeth me,
By his own hand, he leadeth me;
His faithful follower I would be,
For by his hand he leadeth me.

2 Sometimes 'mid scenes of deepest gloom,
Sometimes where Eden's bowers
bloom,
By waters still, or troubled sea,
Still 'tis his hand that leadeth me.

3 Lord, I would clasp thy hand in mine,
Nor ever murmur nor repine,
Content, whatever lot I see,
Since 'tis my God that leadeth me.

53 LABAN. S. M.

1 My soul, be on thy guard;
Ten thousand foes arise;
The hosts of sin are pressing hard
To draw thee from the skies.

2 Oh, watch, and fight, and pray;
The battle ne'er give o'er;
Renew it boldly every day,
And help divine implore.

3 Ne'er think the victory won,
Nor lay thy armor down;
Thy arduous work will not be done
Till thou obtain thy crown.

4 Fight on, my soul, till death
Shall bring thee to thy God;
He'll take thee, at thy parting breath,
Up to his blest abode.

54 TOPLADY. 7s.

1 Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in thee;
Let the water and the blood
From thy wounded side which flowed,

Be of sin the double cure—
Save from wrath and make me pure.

2 Could my tears forever flow,
Could my zeal no languor know,
These for sin could not atone;
Thou must save, and thou alone;
In my hand no price I bring;
Simply to thy cross I cling,

3 While I draw this fleeting breath,
When my eyes shall close in death,
When I rise to worlds unknown,
And behold thee on thy throne,—
Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in thee.

55 HAPPY DAY. L. M.

1 Oh, happy day that fixed my choice,
On thee, my Savior and my God;
Well may this glowing heart rejoice
And tell its raptures all abroad.

CHORUS.

Happy day, happy day,
When Jesus washed my sins away;
He taught me how to watch and pray,
And live rejoicing every day;
Happy day, happy day,
When Jesus washed my sins away.

2 Now rest, my long-divided heart;
Fixed on this blissful center, rest;
Nor ever from thy Lord depart,
With him of every good possessed.

3 High heaven that heard the solemn vow,
That vow renewed shall daily hear,
Till in life's latest hour I bow,
And bless in death a bond so dear.

63 RETREAT. L. M.

1 From every stormy wind that blows,
From every swelling tide of woes,
There is a calm, a sure retreat;
'Tis found before the mercy-seat.

2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads—
A place of all on earth most sweet;
It is the blood-bought mercy-seat.

3 There is a scene where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend;
Though sundered far, by faith they meet
Around one common mercy-seat.

4 There, there, on eagle wings we soar,
And sin and sense molest no more;
And heaven comes down our souls to greet,
And glory crowns the mercy-seat.

64 HOME OVER THERE. 8s.

1 Oh, think of the home over there,
By the side of the river of light,
Where the saints, all immortal and fair,
Are robed in their garments of white.

REFRAIN.

Over there, over there,
Oh, think of the home over there.
2 Oh, think of the friends over there,
Who before us the journey have trod,
Of the songs that they breathe on the air,
In their home in the palace of God.

3 My Savior is now over there,
There my kindred and friends are at rest,
Then away from my sorrow and care,
Let me fly to the land of the best.

65 MY TITLE CLEAR. C. M.

1 When I can read my title clear
To mansions in the skies,
I'll bid farewell to every fear,
And wipe my weeping eyes.

CHORUS.

We will stand the storm,
It won't be very long,
We'll anchor by and by.

2 Should earth against my soul engage,
And fiery darts be hurled,
Then I can smile at Satan's rage,
And face a frowning world.

3 Let cares like a wild deluge come,
Let storms of sorrow fall,—
So I but safely reach my home,
My God, my heaven, my all.

4 There I shall bathe my weary soul
In seas of heavenly rest,
And not a wave of trouble roll
Across my peaceful breast.

66 BALERMA. C. M.

1 The Savior bids us watch and pray,
Through life's brief, fleeting hour,
And gives the Spirit's quickening ray
To those who seek his power.

2 The Savior bids us watch and pray,
Maintain a warrior's strife;

Help, Lord, to hear thy voice to-day;
Obedience is our life.

3 The Savior bids us watch and pray,
For soon the hour will come
That calls us from the earth away
To our eternal home.

4 O Savior, we would watch and pray,
And hear thy sacred voice,
And walk, as thou hast marked the way,
To heaven's eternal joys.

The paths of peace have trod—
Whose secret heart, with influence sweet,
Is upward drawn to God.

We seek thy grace alone.
In childhood, manhood, age, and death,
To keep us still thine own.

68 TUNE, SILOAM. C. M.

1 Return, O wanderer, return,
And seek thy Father's face;
Those new desires which in thee burn
Were kindled by his grace.

2 Return, O wanderer, return,
He hears thy humble sigh;
He sees thy softened spirit mourn,
When no one else is nigh.

3 Return, O wanderer, return,
Thy Savior bids thee live;
Come to his cross, and, grateful learn
How freely he'll forgive

1 My Jesus, as thou wilt:
Oh, may thy will be mine;
Into thy hand of love
I would my all resign.
Through sorrow or through joy,
Conduct me as thine own,
And help me still to say,
"My Lord, thy will be done."

2 My Jesus, as thou wilt:
Though seen through many a tear,
Let not my star of hope
Grow dim or disappear.
Since thou on earth hast wept
And sorrowed oft alone,
If I must weep with thee,
My Lord, thy will be done.

3 My Jesus, as thou wilt:
All shall be well for me;
Each changing future scene
I gladly trust with thee.
Straight to my home above,
I travel calmly on,
And sing in life or death,
"My Lord, thy will be done."

1 Welcome, delightful morn,
Thou day of sacred rest,
We hail thy kind return,
Lord! make these moments blessed;
From the low train of mortal toys
We soar to reach immortal joys.

2 Now may the King descend
And fill his throne of grace;
Thy scepter, Lord, extend,
While saints address thy face;
Let sinners feel thy quickening word,
And learn to know and fear the Lord.

3 Descend, celestial Dove!
With all thy quickening powers,
Disclose a Savior's love,
And bless these sacred hours;
Then shall our souls new life obtain,
Nor Sabbaths be bestowed in vain.

76 SWEET HOUR. L. M. D.

1 Sweet hour of prayer, sweet hour of
prayer,
That calls me from a world of care,

And bids me, at my Father's throne,
Make all my wants and wishes known!
In seasons of distress and grief,
My soul has often found relief,
And oft escaped the tempter's snare,
By thy return, sweet hour of prayer.

2 Sweet hour of prayer, sweet hour of
prayer,
Thy wings shall my petition bear
To him, whose truth and faithfulness
Engage the waiting soul to bless:
And since he bids me seek his face,
Believe his word, and trust his grace,
I'll cast on him my every care,
And wait for thee, sweet hour of prayer.

77 BOYLSTON. S. M.

1 Once more, before we part,
Oh! bless the Savior's name;
Let every tongue and every heart
Adore and praise the same.

2 Lord! in thy grace we came,
That blessing still impart;
We met in Jesus' sacred name,
In Jesus' name we part.

3 Still on thy holy word
Help us to feed and grow,
Still to go on to know the Lord,
And practice what we know.

"Then shall the King say to them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed."—Matt. 25: 34.

I. BALTZELL.

1. Meet me at the King's right hand, Scholars dear of mine; Gathered there, a joyful band, Saved by love divine.
2. In that dread and solemn day Tribes of earth shall meet; Casting off their proud array At the judgment-seat.
3. Oh, remember in your youth, Time must pass away; Heed the Savior's words of truth, Think of that great day.
4. Come to Christ, a willing band, Scholars dear of mine; Then, upon the King's right hand, I shall see you shine.

CHORUS.

Let me see you waiting stand Ready for the glory-land; Robed and crowned with angels round, Robed and crowned with angels round, Meet me, oh, meet me! Meet me, oh, meet me! Meet me, oh, meet me at the King's right hand.

81 LET THE SAVIOR IN. L. M.

1 Behold a stranger at the door!
He gently knocks, has knocked before,
Has waited long, is waiting still;
You treat no other friend so ill.

CHORUS.

Oh, let the dear Savior come in,
He'll cleanse thy heart from sin;
Oh, keep him no more out at the door,
But let the dear Savior come in.

2 Oh, lovely attitude!—he stands
With melting heart and loaded hands;
Oh, matchless kindness!—and he shows
This matchless kindness to his foes.

3 But will he prove a friend indeed?
He will,—the very Friend you need;
The Friend of sinners,—yes, 'tis he,
With garments dyed on Calvary.

4 Rise, touched with gratitude divine,
Turn out thy enemy and thine,—
That soul-destroying monster, sin,—
And let the heavenly Stranger in.

82 MARCHING TO ZION.

1 Come, ye that love the Lord,
And let your joys be known;
Join in a song with sweet accord,
While ye surround his throne.

CHORUS,

We're marching to Zion,
Beautiful, beautiful Zion!
We're marching upward to Zion,
The beautiful city of God.

2 Let those refuse to sing,
Who never knew our God;
But servants of the Heavenly King
May speak their joys abroad.

3 Then let our songs abound,
And every tear be dry;
We're marching through Immanuel's ground
To fairer worlds on high.

83 ST. THOMAS. S. M.

1 I love thy kingdom, Lord,—
The house of thine abode,—
The Church our blest Redeemer saved
With his own precious blood.

2 I love thy Church, O God!
Her walls before thee stand,
Dear as the apple of thine eye,
And graven on thy hand.

3 For her my tears shall fall;
For her my prayers ascend;
To her my cares and toils be given,
Till toils and cares shall end.

4 Beyond my highest joy
I prize her heavenly ways;
Her sweet communion, solemn vows,
Her hymns of love and praise.

5 Sure as thy truth shall last,
To Zion shall be given
The brightest glories earth can yield,
And brighter bliss of heaven.

84 TUNE, ST. THOMAS. S. M.

1 Welcome, sweet day of rest,
That saw the Lord arise;
Welcome to this reviving breast;
And these rejoicing eyes!

2 The King himself comes near,
And feasts his saints to-day;
Here we may sit, and see him here,
And love, and praise, and pray.

3 One day in such a place,
Where thou, my God, art seen,
Is sweeter than ten thousand days
Of pleasurable sin.

4 My willing soul would stay
In such a frame as this,
And sit and sing herself away
To everlasting bliss.

85 ZION. 8s, 7s, 4s.

Weak and wounded, sick and sore;
Jesus ready stands to save you,
Full of pity, love and power;

90 ST. MARTIN'S. C. M.

1 There is an Eye that never sleeps
 Beneath the wing of night;
 There is an Ear that never shuts
 When sink the beams of light.

2 There is an Arm that never tires
 When human strength gives way;
 There is a Love that never fails
 When earthly loves decay.

3 That Eye is fixed on Seraph throngs;
 That Arm upholds the sky;
 That Ear is filled with Angel songs;
 That Love is throned on high.

4 But there's a power which man can wield,
 When mortal aid is vain,
 That Eye, that Arm, that Love to reach,
 That listening Ear to gain.

5 That power is Prayer, which soars on high
 Through Jesus to the throne,
 And moves the Hand which moves the world
 To bring salvation down.

"O my God, I trust in thee: let me not be ashamed."—Ps. 25: 2. Arr. and Composed by E. S. L.

1. Oh, how loving and how true Is our God and Friend; On our pathway doth he strew Mercies without end.
2. 'Neath his hand the fruitful earth Life and beauty yields; Are not ye of greater worth Than the flow'ry fields?
3. Shall he all the wants supply Of the birds of air, Leaving you to pine and die Filled with dark despair?

95 SWEET STORY. P. M.

1 I think when I read that sweet story of old,
When Jesus was here among men,
How he called little children as lambs to his fold,
I should like to have been with them then.

2 I wish that his hands had been placed on my head,
That his arm had been thrown around me,
And that I might have seen his kind look when he said,
"Let the little ones come unto me."

3 Yet still to his footstool in prayer I may go,
And ask for a share in his love;
And if I thus earnestly seek him below,
I shall see him and hear him above.

4 In that beautiful place he has gone to prepare
For all who are washed and forgiven;
And many dear children are gathering there,
"For of such is the kingdom of heaven."

96 HAMBURG. L. M.

1 From all that dwell below the skies,
Let the Creator's praise arise;
Let the Redeemer's name be sung
Through every land, by every tongue.

2 Eternal are thy mercies, Lord;
Eternal truth attends thy word;
Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore,
Till suns shall rise and set no more.

3 Your lofty themes, ye mortals, bring;
In songs of praise divinely sing;
The great salvation loud proclaim,
And shout for joy the Savior's name.

4 In every land begin the song;
To every land the strains belong;
In cheerful sounds all voices raise,
And fill the world with loudest praise.

97 REST FOR THE WEARY. 8s, 7s.

1 In the Christian's home in glory
There remains a land of rest;
There my Savior's gone before me,
To fulfill my soul's request.

CHORUS.

There is rest for the weary,
There is rest for the weary,
There is rest for the weary,
There is rest for you.
On the other side of Jordan,
In the sweet fields of Eden,
Where the tree of life is blooming
There is rest for you.

2 He is fitting up my mansion,
Which eternally shall stand;
For my stay shall not be transient
In that holy, happy land.

3 Sing, oh, sing, ye heirs of glory!
Shout your triumphs as you go;
Zion's gates will open for you,
You shall find an entrance thro'.

98 ORTONVILLE. C. M.

1 How sweet the name of Jesus sounds
In a believer's ear;
It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,
And drives away his fear.

2 It makes the wounded spirit whole,
And calms the troubled breast;
'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
And to the weary, rest.

3 Dear Name, the Rock on which I build,
My shield and hiding-place;
My never-failing treasure, filled
With boundless stores of grace.

4 Jesus, my Shepherd, Savior, Friend,
My Prophet, Priest, and King;
My Lord, my Life, my Way, and End,
Accept the praise I bring.

99 TUNE, ORTONVILLE. C. M.

1 Oh, for a heart to praise my God,
A heart from sin set free:—
A heart that always feels thy blood,
So freely spilt for me:—

2 A heart resigned, submissive, meek,
My great Redeemer's throne;
Where only Christ is heard to speak,
Where Jesus reigns alone.

3 Oh, for a lowly, contrite heart,
Believing, true, and clean;
Which neither life nor death can part
From him that dwells within:—

4 A heart in every thought renewed,
And full of love divine;
Perfect, and right, and pure, and good,
A copy, Lord, of thine.

SPEED THE GOSPEL.

D. B. P.

"Preach the gospel to every creature."—Mark 16; 15.

D. B. PURINTON.

1. God, our Father, bids us Proclaim his saving grace To the darkened nations Of Adam's fallen race.
2. Millions now are turning To us their longing eyes, Pleading for redemption From death that never dies.
3. Leave them not to perish, Oh, child of God's delight, Tell them of a Sav-ior Who giveth life and light.

Musical score for the song "SPEED THE GOSPEL." The score is written for a single melodic line and a bass accompaniment. The key signature has two sharps (F# and C#), and the time signature is 6/8. The melody is in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The lyrics are: "1. God, our Father, bids us Proclaim his saving grace To the darkened nations Of Adam's fallen race. 2. Musical score for the chorus of "SPEED THE GOSPEL." The score is written for a single melodic line and a bass accompaniment. The key signature has two sharps (F# and C#), and the time signature is 6/8. The melody is in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The lyrics are: "Speed the gospel evermore, On the wings of faith and prayer, Let it sound from shore to shore, Ev'ry nation hear."

1. Keep me, Lord, not from trial, Not from pain, self-de-ni-al; Hast not thou borne a heavy, painful cross?
2. Keep me, Lord, from temptation, Be my strong, sure salvation; Save from sin, from the deadly serpent's charm;
3. Spread thy soft wings above me, Stretch thine arms out to love me, Let me still feel thy presence near and best;

Keep me, Lord, not from sorrow, For thy smile it shall bor-row, Sweet for thy sake is suff'ring, danger, loss.
Here I take ref-uge, hide me; To thy pierced heart confide me; Who can reach past thy might to do me harm?
God's pa-vil-ion so ho-ly, Built for thy peo-ple low-ly, This is shel-ter; here safely I shall rest.

- 1 There's a wideness in God's mercy,
Like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in his justice,
Which is more than liberty.
- 2 There's a welcome for the sinner,
And more graces for the good;
There is mercy with the Savior;
There is healing in his blood.
- 3 For the love of God is broader
Than the measure of man's mind;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.
- 4 If our love were but more simple,
We should take him at his word;
And our lives would be all sunshine
In the sweetness of our Lord.

114 HOPE. 6s, 4s.

1 Fade, fade each earthly joy;
 Jesus is mine:
 Break every tender tie;
 Jesus is mine:
 Dark is the wilderness,
 Earth has no resting-place,
 Jesus alone can bless;
 Jesus is mine.

2 Tempt not my soul away;
 Jesus is mine:
 Here would I ever stay;
 Jesus is mine:
 Perishing things of clay,
 Born but for one brief day,
 Pass from my heart away;
 Jesus is mine.

3 Farewell, ye dreams of night;
 Jesus is mine:
 Lost in this dawning bright;
 Jesus is mine:

All that my soul has tried
 Left but a dismal void;
 Jesus has satisfied;
 Jesus is mine.

4 Farewell, mortality;
 Jesus is mine:
 Welcome, eternity;
 Jesus is mine:
 Welcome, oh, loved and blest,
 Welcome, sweet scenes of rest,
 Welcome, my Savior's breast;
 Jesus is mine.

 3. They say he bore the cross for me, And suffered in my place, That I might always happy be, And ransomed by his grace.

 Yet how rich is my condition,
 God and heaven are still my own!

 They have left my Saviour too;
 Human hearts and looks deceive me;

1 Joy to the world! the Lord is come!
Let earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare him room,
And heaven and nature sing.

2 Joy to the earth! the Savior reigns!
Let men their songs employ;
While fields, and floods, rocks, hills,
and plains,
Repeat the sounding joy.

3 No more let sins and sorrow grow,
Nor thorns infest the ground,
He comes to make his blessings flow
Far as the curse is found.

grace,
And makes the nations prove
The glories of his righteousness,
And wonders of his love.

121 JESUS DIED.

1 Alas! and did my Savior bleed?
And did my Sovereign die?
Would he devote that sacred head
For such a worm as I!

CHORUS.

Jesus died for you, Jesus died for me,
Yes! Jesus died for all mankind,
Bless God! salvation's free.

2 Was it for crimes that I have done
He groaned upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!

3 Well might the sun in darkness hide,
And shut his glories in,
When Christ, the mighty Maker, died,
For man, the creature's sin!

4 Thus might I hide my blushing face,
While his dear cross appears,
Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
And melt mine eyes to tears.

5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe;
Here, Lord, I give myself away;
'Tis all that I can do.

Zion, kept by power divine;
All her foes shall be confounded,
Though the world in arms combine;
Happy Zion—
What a favored lot is thine!

2 Every human tie may perish,
Friend to friend unfaithful prove;
Mothers cease their own to cherish,
Heaven and earth at last remove;
But no changes
Can attend Jehovah's love.

bright,
But can never cease to love thee;
Thou art precious in his sight;
God is with thee—
God, thine everlasting light.

1 Salvation! oh, the joyful sound!
What pleasure to our ears;
A sov'reign balm for every wound,
A cordial for our fears.

2 Salvation! let the echo fly
The spacious world around,
While all the armies of the sky
Conspire to raise the sound.

3 Salvation! oh, thou bleeding Lamb!
To thee the praise belongs;
Salvation shall inspire our hearts,
And dwell upon our tongues.

130 PLEYEL'S HYMN. 7s.

1 Hasten, sinner, to be wise!
Stay not for the morrow's sun;
Wisdom, if you still despise,
Harder is it to be won.

2 Hasten mercy to implore!
Stay not for the morrow's sun,
Lest thy season should be o'er,
Ere this evening's stage be run.

3 Hasten, sinner, to return!
Stay not for the morrow's sun,
Lest thy lamp should fail to burn
Ere salvation's work is done.

4 Hasten, sinner, to be blest!
Stay not for the morrow's sun,
Lest perdition thee arrest
Ere the morrow is begun.

131 TUNE, PLEYEL'S HYMN. 7s.

1 Holy Bible! book divine!
Precious treasure! thou art mine!
Mine, to tell me whence I came;
Mine, to teach me what I am;

2 Mine, to chide me when I rove;
Mine, to show a Savior's love;
Mine art thou to guide my feet;
Mine, to judge, condemn, acquit;

3 Mine, to comfort in distress,
If the Holy Spirit bless;
Mine, to show by living faith
Man can triumph over death;

4 Mine, to tell of joys to come,
And the rebel sinner's doom;
Oh, thou precious book divine!
Precious treasure! thou art mine!

132 JESUS PAID IT ALL. 6s.

1 I hear the Savior say,
Thy strength indeed is small;
Child of weakness, watch and pray,
Find in me thine all in all.

CHORUS.

Jesus paid it all,
All to him I owe;
Sin had left a crimson stain;
He washed it white as snow.

2 For nothing good have I
Whereby thy grace to claim—
I'll wash my garment white
In the blood of Calvary's Lamb.

3 When from my dying bed
My ransomed soul shall rise,
Then "Jesus paid it all,"
Shall rend the vaulted skies.

1 The great Physician now is near,
The sympathizing Jesus;
He speaks the drooping heart to cheer,
Oh! hear the voice of Jesus.

CHORUS.

Sweetest note in seraph song,
Sweetest name on mortal tongue,
Sweetest carol ever sung,
Jesus, blessed Jesus.

2 Your many sins are all forgiven,
Oh! hear the voice of Jesus;
Go on your way in peace to heaven,
And wear a crown with Jesus.

3 All glory to the dying Lamb!
I now believe in Jesus;
I love the blessed Savior's name,
I love the name of Jesus.

Rest for the weary soul?
T'were vain the ocean's depths to sound,
Or pierce to either pole.

The bliss for which we sigh;
'Tis not the whole of life to live,

There is a life above,
Unmeasured by the flight of years;
And all that life is love.

- 1 O for a closer walk with God,
A calm and heavenly frame;
A light to shine upon the road
That leads me to the Lamb!

When first I saw the Lord?
Where is the soul-refreshing view
Of Jesus and His word?

How sweet their memory still!
But they have left an aching void
The world can never fill.

Sweet messenger of rest!
I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
And drove thee from my breast.

Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from thy throne,
And worship only thee.

141 SHEPHERD. 8s, 7s, 4s.

Much we need thy tenderest care;
In thy pleasant pastures feed us,
For our use thy folds prepare:
Blessed Jesus,
Thou hast bought us, thine we are.

Be the guardian of our way;
Keep thy flock, from sin defend us,
Seek us when we go astray:
Blessed Jesus,
Hear, O hear us, when we pray.

Poor and sinful though we be;
Thou hast mercy to relieve us,
Grace to cleanse and power to free:
Blessed Jesus,
We will early turn to thee.

"There is nothing I can do,"
While the souls of men are dying,
And the Master calls for you:
Take the task he gives you gladly;
Let his work your pleasure be;
Answer quickly when he calleth,

"Search the Scriptures."—John 5: 39.

E. S. LORENZ.

1. Would you precious treasure gain? Would you endless life obtain? Search the Scriptures, for the truth is written there;
2. Would you lead young souls to-day In the safe and narrow way, Take the sacred message given from on high;
3. Till the day-star from above Fill your heart with light and love May the music of the Gospel onward roll;

Let thy heart take earnest heed, Let your faith each promise plead, God will teach the souls that read his word with care.
For the word of truth and grace Is a light in every place, That will teach us how to live and how to die.
Till the shadows are withdrawn, And the light from heaven dawn, And the splendor flood the earth from pole to pole.

CHRIST IS ALL IN ALL TO ME.

REV. W. H. LUCKENBACK.

"But Christ is all, and in all."—Col. 3: 11.

I. BALTZELL.

Moderato.

1. Christ is all in all to me, More than vaults of gold; More than rank or high degree, More than can be told.
2. Christ is all in all to me, All the strength I need; All he suffered is my plea, All he said, my creed.
3. Christ is all in all to me, Of my friends the best; Of my joys, the chief is he; From all fears, my rest.

All in all, from morn till night, All in all, when life is bright, All in all, when sorrows blight; Christ is all in all.
All in all, in prayer or song, All in all, when weak or strong, All in all, thro' life along; Christ is all in all.
All in all, while here I stay, All in all, till life's last day, All in all, I'll sing for aye; Christ is all in all.

"Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid."—Deut. 1: 9.

I. BALTZELL.

1. Be strong in Je-ho-vah, though hard be the fight, We'll conquer, we know, in the power of his might;
 2. The trumpet is sounding—the trumpet of war; No peace while we wait for the bright morning star;
 3. We'll sing while we march thro' the midst of our foes, Who stand all determined our way to op-pose;
 4. Lord, give us more faith thus to meet every foe, Till Sa-tan is conquered, his scap-ter laid low;

Put on the whole ar-mor of God, ev-ery one; Go forth bravely fight-ing till vic-to-ry's won.
 We watch where the foe would surprise or a-larm; By faith we shall nerve for the fight ev-ery arm.
 We'll conquer their legions, our bat-tle-song raise; The Lord is our Captain, his name we will praise.
 This, this is the triumph o'er earth and its gain—O'er sin still with-in, but which never shall reign.

1 Did Christ o'er sinners weep?
And shall our cheeks be dry?
Let floods of penitential grief
Burst forth from every eye.

2 The Son of God in tears
The wondering angels see;
Be thou astonished, oh, my soul;
He shed those tears for thee.

3 He wept that we might weep;
Each sin demands a tear;
In heaven alone no sin is found,
And there's no weeping there.

153 EVAN. C. M.

1 How sweet, how heavenly is the sight,
When those who love the Lord,
In one another's peace delight,
And so fulfill his word!

2 When each can feel his brother's sigh,
And with him bear a part;
When sorrow flows from eye to eye,
And joy from heart to heart:—

3 When free from envy, scorn, and pride,
Our wishes all above,
Each can his brother's failings hide,
And show a brother's love:—

4 When love, in one delightful stream,
Through every bosom flows!
When union sweet, and dear esteem,
In every action glows.

154 TUNE, WEBB. 7s, 6s. D.

1 Pray when the dawn is beaming
Upon the sunny hills,
When half the world is dreaming
On scenes which fancy fills;
Pray at the silent hour,
As pensively you stray
By mead or fragrant bower,
To while the time away.

2 Pray when the evening closes—
All nature sinks to rest—
Beast in the lair reposes,
Bird in the downy nest;
Pray at the midnight season,
Enveloped in its gloom;
Oh, then, indeed, there's reason—
'Tis kindred to the tomb.

155 AMOY. 6s, 4s.

1 To-day the Savior calls;
Ye wanderers, come!
Oh, ye benighted souls,
Why longer roam?

2 To-day the Savior calls;
For refuge fly;
The storm of vengeance falls,
Ruin is nigh.

3 To-day the Savior calls;
Oh, listen now!
Within these sacred walls
To Jesus bow.

4 The Spirit calls to-day,
Yield to his power;
Oh, grieve him not away!
'Tis mercy's hour.

156 WEBB. 7s, 6s. D.

1 Stand up! stand up for Jesus!
Ye soldiers of the cross;
Lift high his royal banner,
It must not suffer loss;
From victory unto victory
His army shall he lead,
Till every foe is vanquished,
And Christ is Lord indeed.

2 Stand up! stand up for Jesus!
The trumpet call obey;
Forth to the mighty conflict,
In this his glorious day;
Ye that are men! now serve him,
Against unnumbered foes;
Your courage rise with danger,
And strength to strength oppose.

3 Stand up! stand up for Jesus!
Stand in his strength alone;
The arm of flesh will fail you—
Ye dare not trust your own.
Put on the gospel armor,
And, watching unto prayer,
Where duty calls or danger,
Be never wanting there.

4 Stand up! stand up for Jesus!
The strife will not be long;
This day the noise of battle,
The next the victor's song;
To him that overcometh,
A crown of life shall be;
He, with the King of glory,
Shall reign eternally.

 And be forever blest?
 When shall I see my Father's face,

 We all must work for Jesus—his people far and near,—The rich, the poor, the lowly,—the peasant and the peer.
 We all must work for Jesus, 'twill oftentimes try us sore, But plenteous grace to aid us into our hearts he'll pour.
 We all must work for Jesus, till all our toils are o'er, And then with him in glory we'll rest for evermore.

178 SILVER STREET. S. M.

1 Awake, and sing the song
Of Moses and the Lamb;
Wake, every heart and every tongue,
To praise the Savior's name.

2 Sing of his dying love;
Sing of his rising power;
Sing how he intercedes above
For those whose sins he bore.

3 Sing on your heavenly way,
Ye fansomed sinners, sing;
Sing on, rejoicing every day
In Christ, the eternal King.

179 HEBRON. L. M.

1 Thus far the Lord hath led me on,
Thus far his power prolongs my days;
And every evening shall make known
Some fresh memorial of his grace.

2 Much of my time has run to waste,
And I, perhaps, am near my home;
But he forgives my follies past,
And gives me strength for days to come.

3 I lay my body down to sleep;
Peace is the pillow for my head;
While well-appointed angels keep Their watchful stations round my bed.

4 Thus, when the night of death shall come,
My flesh shall rest beneath the ground,
And wait thy voice to rouse my tomb,
With sweet salvation in the sound.

180 THE SAINTS' HOME. 11s.

1 'Mid scenes of confusion and creature complaints,
How sweet to the soul is communion with saints!
To find at the banquet of mercy there's room,
And feel in the presence of Jesus at home;
Home! home! sweet, sweet home!
Prepare me, dear Savior, for glory,
my home.

2 Sweet bonds that unite all the children of peace!
And, thrice precious Jesus, whose love can not cease,
Thought oft from thy presence in sadness I roam,
I long to behold thee in glory, at home.

181 CONTRAST. 8s.

1 How tedious and tasteless the hours
When Jesus no longer I see!
Sweet prospects, sweet birds, and sweet flowers,
Have all lost their sweetness to me;

The midsummer sun shines but dim,
The fields strive in vain to look gay;
But when I am happy in him,
December's as pleasant as May.

2 His name yields the richest perfume,
And sweeter than music his voice;
His presence disperses my gloom,
And makes all within me rejoice;
I should, were he always thus nigh,
Have nothing to wish or to fear;
No mortal so happy as I,
My summer would last all the year.

182 BOYLSTON. S. M.

1 Mourn for the thousands slain,
The youthful and the strong;
Mourn for the wine-cup's fearful reign,
And the deluded throng.

2 Mourn for the ruined soul—
Eternal life and light
Lost by the fiery, maddening bowl,
And turned to hopeless night.

3 Mourn for the lost,—but call,
Call to the strong, the free;
Rouse them to shun that dreadful fall,
And to the refuge flee.

4 Mourn for the lost,—but pray,
Pray to our God above,
To break the fell destroyer's sway,
And show his saving love.

 Roll round with the year,
 And never stand still till the Master appear.
 His adorable will let us gladly fulfill,
 And our talents improve
 By the patience of hope and the labor of love.

 "I have fought my way through,
 I've finished the work thou didst give me to do!"
 Oh, that each from his Lord may receive the glad word,
 "Well and faithfully done!"
 Enter into my joy, and sit down on my throne."

193 WORK, FOR THE NIGHT.

1 Work, for the night is coming,
Work through the morning hours;
Work while the dew is sparkling,
Work 'mid springing flowers;
Work when the day grows brighter,
Work in the glowing sun;
Work, for the night is coming,
When man's work is done.

2 Work, for the night is coming,
Work through the sunny noon;
Fill brightest hours with labor,
Rest comes sure and soon;
Give every flying minute
Something to keep in store;
Work, for the night is coming,
When man works no more.

3 Work, for the night is coming,
Under the sunset skies;
While their bright tints are glowing,
Work, for daylight flies;
Work till the last beam fadeth,
Fadeth to shine no more;
Work while the night is darkening,
When man's work is o'er.

194 CLEANSING FOUNTAIN. C. M.

1 There is a fountain, filled with blood,
Drawn from Immanuel's veins,
And sinners, plunged beneath that flood,
Lose all their guilty stains.

2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day;
And there may I, though vile as he,
Wash all my sins away.

3 Dear dying Lamb, thy precious blood
Shall never lose its power,
Till all the ransomed Church of God
Are saved to sin no more.

195 GREENVILLE. 8s, 7s.

1 Come thou Fount of every blessing,
Tune my heart to sing thy grace;
Streams of mercy, never ceasing,
Call for songs of loudest praise;
Teach me some melodious sonnet,
 Sung by flaming tongues above;
Praise the mount—I'm fixed upon it,
Mount of thy redeeming love.

2 Here I raise my Ebenezer;
Hither by thy help I'm come;
And I hope, by thy good pleasure,
Safely to arrive at home;
Jesus sought me when a stranger,
Wandering from the fold of God;
He to rescue me from danger,
Interposed his precious blood.

3 Oh, to grace how great a debtor
Daily I'm constrained to be!
Let thy goodness, like a fetter,
Bind my wandering heart to thee;
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it,
Prone to leave the God I love;
Here's my heart, Lord, take and seal
it,
Seal it for thy courts above.

196 DENNIS. S. M.

1 Blest be he that binds
Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

2 Before our Father's throne
We pour our ardent prayers;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
Our comforts and our cares.

3 We share our mutual woes,
Our mutual burdens bear;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

197 NEW HAVEN. 6s, 4s.

1 My faith looks up to thee,
Thou Lamb of Calvary,
Savior divine!
Now hear me while I pray,
Take all my guilt away,
Oh, let me from this day
Be wholly thine.

2 May thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart,
My zeal inspire;
As thou hast died for me,
Oh, may my love to thee,
Pure, warm, and changeless be,
A living fire.

- 1 The morning light is breaking,
 The darkness disappears;
 The sons of earth are waking
 To penitential tears;
 Each breeze that sweeps the ocean
 Brings tidings from afar,
 Of nations in commotion,
 Prepared for Zion's war.
- 2 Rich dews of grace come o'er us,
 In many a gentle shower,
 And brighter scenes before us
 Are opening every hour;
 Each cry to heaven going
 Abundant answers brings,
 And heavenly gales are blowing,
 With peace upon their wings.
- 3 Blest river of salvation!
 Pursue thine onward way;
 Flow thou to every nation,
 Nor in thy richness stay.
 Stay not, till all the lowly
 Triumphant reach their home;
 Stay not, till all the holy Proclaim, "The Lord is come."

 From India's coral strand,
 Where Africa's sunny fountains
 Roll down their golden sand;
 From many an ancient river,
 From many a palmy plain,
 They call us to deliver
 Their land from error's chain.
- 2 Shall we, whose souls are lighted
 With wisdom from on high—
 Shall we, to men benighted,
 The lamp of life deny?
 Salvation, oh, salvation!
 The joyful sound proclaim,
 Till earth's remotest nation
 Has learned Messiah's name.
- 3 Waft, waft, ye winds, his story,
 And you, ye waters roll,
 Till like a sea of glory,
 It spreads from pole to pole;
 Till o'er our ransomed nature
 The Lamb for sinners slain,
 Redeemer, King, Creator,
 In bliss returns to reign.

1st. 2d.

Musical score for 'Dust to Dust' in 2/2 time. The score consists of two staves: a treble clef staff for the vocal line and a bass clef staff for the piano accompaniment. The key signature has one sharp (F#). The melody is simple and hymn-like, with a steady accompaniment.

1. Dust to dust with ashes lay, Till the final judgment day; Till the trump of God shall sound, Breaking ev'ry turf-sealed mound.
2. Let our tears fall on the grave, Let the wild winds moan and rave; These shall not disturb the sleep O'er which angels vigils keep.
3. God's sweet morn shall break at last, When time's night of pain is past; Then from out the grave's dull gloom Souls shall wake in beauteous bloom.
4. Crowns of glory, wings of light, Radiant robes of dazzling white; These await that glorious day When the grave-stones roll away.

228 GREENVILLE. 8s, 7s, 4s.

Musical score for 'Greenville' in 4/4 time. The score consists of a single treble clef staff. The key signature has one flat (Bb). The melody is simple and hymn-like.

- 1 In thy name, O Lord, assembling,
We, thy people, now draw near;
Teach us to rejoice with trembling;
Speak, and let thy servants hear;
Hear with meekness,
Hear thy word with godly fear.
- 2 While our days on earth are length-
ened,
May we give them, Lord, to thee;
Cheered by hope, and daily strengthened,
May we run, nor weary be,
Till thy glory
Without cloud in heaven we see.

229 AVON. C. M.

Musical score for 'Avon' in 3/4 time. The score consists of a single treble clef staff. The key signature has two flats (Bb, Eb). The melody is simple and hymn-like.

- 1 Jesus, the very thought of thee
With sweetness fills the breast;
But sweeter far thy face to see,
And in thy presence rest.

- 2 No voice can sing, no heart can frame
Nor can the memory find
A sweeter sound than Jesus' name,
The Savior of mankind.

- 3 O Hope of every contrite heart,
O Joy of all the meek,
To those who ask, how kind thou art!
How good to those who seek!

230 DEPTH OF MERCY. 7s.

Musical score for 'Depth of Mercy' in 6/8 time. The score consists of a single treble clef staff. The key signature has one flat (Bb). The melody is simple and hymn-like.

- 1 Depth of mercy! can there be
Mercy still reserved for me?
Can my God his wrath forbear,—
Me, the chief of sinners, spare?
CHO.—God is love, I know, I feel,
Jesus weeps, and loves me still.

- 2 I have long withstood his grace;
Long provoked him to his face:
Would not hearken to his calls;
Grieved him by a thousand falls.

- 3 Now incline me to repent;
Let me now my sins lament;
Now my foul revolt deplore,
Weep, believe, and sin no more.

231 WINGS OF FAITH. C. M.

Musical score for 'Wings of Faith' in 4/4 time. The score consists of a single treble clef staff. The key signature has one flat (Bb). The melody is simple and hymn-like.

- 1 Give me the wings of faith, to rise
Within the veil, and see
The saints above, how great their joys,
How bright their glories be.

- CHO.—Many are the friends who are waiting to-day,
Happy on the golden strand;
Many are the voices calling us away.
To join their glorious band.
: Calling us away.:
Calling to the better land.

- 2 Once they were mourners here below
And poured out cries and tears;
They wrestled hard, as we do now,
With sins, and doubts, and fears.

- 3 I ask them whence their victory came:
They, with united breath,
Ascribe their conquest to the Lamb,
Their triumph to his death.

CHORUS.

Welcome with gladness the happy new year, Happy new year! happy new year! Kind friends we wish you a happy new year,

1. God in his mer-cy our time doth re-new, Use it to serve him, be Happy thro' all of its days. 2. Goodness and mercy have brightened the past, Hopes for the fut-ure on 238 EMMONS. C. M.

- 1 Come, let us join our cheerful songs
With angels round the throne;
Ten thousand thousand are their tongues
But all their joys are one.
- 2 Worthy the Lamb that died, they cry,
To be exalted thus;
Worthy the Lamb, our hearts reply,
For he was slain for us.
- 3 Jesus is worthy to receive
Honor and power divine;
And blessings more than we can give,
Be, Lord, forever thine.
- 4 The whole creation join in one,
To bless the sacred Name
Of him that sits upon the throne,
And to adore the Lamb.

239 TUNE, EMMONS. C. M.

- 1 Jesus, the Name high over all,
In hell, or earth, or sky;
Angels and men before it fall,
And devils fear and fly.
- 2 Jesus, the Name to sinners dear—
The Name to sinners given;
It scatters all their guilty fear;
It turns their hell to heaven.
- 3 Jesus the pris'ner's fetters breaks,
And bruises Satan's head;
Power into strengthless souls he speaks,
And life into the dead.
- 4 Oh, that the world might taste and see
The riches of his grace;
The arms of love that compass me,
Would all mankind embrace.

240 OLD, OLD STORY. 7s, 6s.

- 1 Tell me the Old, Old Story
Of unseen things above,
Of Jesus and his glory,
Of Jesus and his love;
Tell me the Story simply,
As to a little child,
For I am weak and weary,
And helpless and defiled.

CHORUS.

Tell me the Old, Old Story,
Tell me the Old, Old Story,
Tell me the Old, Old Story,
Of Jesus and his love.

- 2 Tell me the same Old Story,
When you have cause to fear
That this world's empty glory
Is costing me too dear;
Yes, and when that world's glory
Is dawning on my soul,
Tell me the Old, Old Story;
"Christ Jesus makes thee whole."

241 I LOVE TO TELL. 7s, 6s.

- 1 I love to tell the Story
Of unseen things above,
Of Jesus and his glory,
Of Jesus and his love;
I love to tell the Story,
Because I know it's true;
It satisfies my longing
As nothing else would do.

CHORUS.

I love to tell the Story,
'Twill be my theme in glory,
To tell the Old, Old Story,
Of Jesus and his love.

- 2 I love to tell the Story!
For those who know it best
Seem hungering and thirsting
To hear it like the rest;
And when in scenes of glory,
I sing the NEW, NEW SONG,
'Twill be the OLD, OLD STORY
That I have loved so long.

242 DUNBAR. S. M.

- 1 And may I still get there?
Still reach the heavenly shore?
The land forever bright and fair,
Where sorrow reigns no more?

CHORUS.

There'll be no sorrow there,
There'll be no sorrow there,
In heaven above, where all is love,
There'll be no sorrow there.

- 2 Shall I, unworthy I,
To fear and doubting given,
Mount up at last, and, happy, fly
On angel's wings to heaven?
- 3 Hail, love divine and pure,
Hail, mercy from the skies!
My hopes are bright and now secure,
Upborne by faith I rise.
- 4 I part with earth and sin,
And shout the danger's past!
My Savior takes me fully in,
And I am his at last.

"The breadth of thy land, O Immanuel."—Is. 8 : 8.

E. S. LORENZ. 1882.

1. The sands of time are wasting, The dawn of heaven breaks; The summer morn I've sighed for, The fair, sweet morn awakes.
 2. Oh, Christ he is the fountain, The deep, sweet well of love; The streams of earth I've tasted, More deep I'll drink above.
 3. Oh! I am my beloved's, And my beloved's mine; He brings a poor vile sinner Into his house divine.

Oh, dark hath been the midnight, But day-spring is at hand; And glory, glory dwelleth In Immanuel's land.
 There to an o - cean fullness His mercy doth expand; And glory, glory dwelleth In Immanuel's land.
 Up-on the rock of ages My soul redeemed shall stand, Where glory, glory dwelleth In Immanuel's land.

250 TUNE, IMMANUEL'S LAND. 7s, 6s.

1 Sometimes a light surprises
 The Christian while he sings:
 It is the Lord who rises
 With healing on his wings;
 When comforts are declining,
 He grants the soul again
 A season of clear shining,
 To cheer it after rain.

2 In holy contemplation,
 We sweetly then pursue
 The theme of God's salvation,
 And find it ever new:
 Set free from present sorrow,
 We cheerfully can say,
 Let the unknown to-morrow
 Bring with it what it may.

"For ye shall pass over Jordan to go in to possess the land which the Lord your God giveth you."—Deut. 11: 31.

E. S. LORENZ.

1. There's a region all unclouded, Such as earth has never known; By no sorrow ever shrouded, Over Jor - dan.
2. See the golden city standing, Just upon the other shore; And the happy pilgrims landing, Over Jor - dan.
3. Oh, to reach the shining portal, Where the weary are at rest; Oh, to join the saints immortal, Over Jor - dan.

There is never care nor sighing, Nor the weeper making moan; Never sickness, never dying, Over Jor - dan.
We can almost hear them singing, As they never sung before; There where fadeless flow'rs are springing, Over Jordan.
There we'll praise the Lord forever, In the mansions of the blest; By the waters of life's river, Over Jordan.

OVER JORDAN. Concluded.

O-ver Jor - - dan I am go - ing, O-ver Jor - - dan I am go - ing;
 Over Jordan I am going to a land so bright and fair, Over Jordan I am going, robes of righteousness to wear;

O-ver Jor - - dan I am go - ing! I am going, to that land so bright and fair.
 O-ver Jordan I am going. I shall meet my Savior there,

- 1 Stand up, and bless the Lord,
 Ye people of his choice;
 Stand up, and bless the Lord your God,
 With heart and soul and voice.
- 2 Oh, for the living flame
 From his own altar brought,
 To touch our lips, our souls inspire,
 And wing to heaven our thought!

 And his salvation ours;
 Then be his love in Christ proclaimed
 With all our ransomed powers.

COME, YE DISCONSOLATE.

- 1 Come, ye disconsolate, where'er ye languish;
 Come to the mercy seat, fervently kneel;
 Here bring your wounded hearts, here tell your anguish,
 Earth has no sorrow that heaven can not heal.
- 2 Joy of the desolate, light of the straying,
 Hope of the penitent, fadeless and pure,
 Here speaks the Comforter, tenderly saying,
 Earth has no sorrow that heaven can not cure.

 Forth from the throne of God, pure from above;
 Come to the feast of love; come, ever knowing
 Earth has no sorrow but heaven can remove.

- 1 How helpless nature lies,
Unconscious of her load!
The heart unchanged can never rise
To happiness and God.
- 2 Can aught but power divine
The stubborn will subdue?
'Tis thine, eternal Spirit, thine
To form the heart anew;
- 3 The passions to recall,
And upward bid them rise;

To make the scales of error fall
From reason's darkened eyes.

- 4 Oh, change these hearts of ours,
And give them life divine;
Then shall our passions and our powers,
Almighty Lord, be thine.

256 CHINA. C. M.

- 1 Why should our tears in sorrow flow
When God recalls his own,
And bids them leave a world of woe,
For an immortal crown?

2 Is not e'en death a gain to those Whose life to God was given?
Gladly to earth their eyes they close,
To open them in heaven.

3 Their toils are past, their work is done,
And they are fully blest;
They fought the fight, the victory won,
And entered into rest.

4 Then let our sorrows cease to flow;
God has recalled his own;
But let our hearts, in every woe,
Still say, "Thy will be done."

 For thy gospel's joyful sound;
 May the fruits of thy salvation
 In our hearts and lives abound;

May thy presence
 With us evermore be found.
